History/Background

STORRE: Stirling Online Research Repository

- Mature, Full text only DSpace based Institutional Repository

Converis Research Management System (RMS)

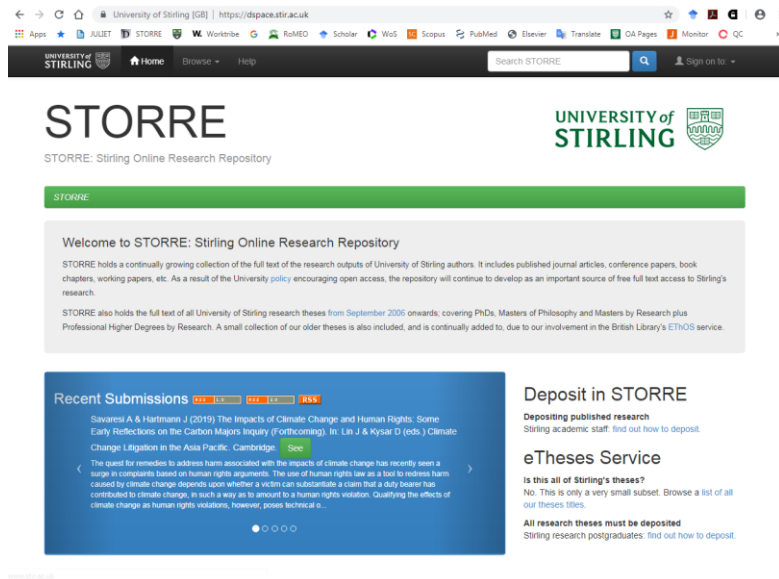

- Live 2012 (that's when I came in)
- Integration with DSpace - had “issues” which led to crashes and duplicates

Worktribe selected to replace Converis (Aut 2016)

- No existing DSpace integration – Developer decided to ‘do it right’
  - Separate application layer – STORRE queue
  - Suite of tools to fix any issues that arise

System Live - May 2018

STORRE: Stirling Online Research Repository

Welcome to STORRE: Stirling Online Research Repository

STORRE holds a continually growing collection of the full text of the research outputs of University of Stirling authors. It includes published journal articles, conference papers, book chapters, working papers, etc. As a result of the University policy encouraging open access, the repository will continue to develop as an important source of free full text access to Stirling's research.

STORRE also holds the full text of all University of Stirling research theses from September 2006 onwards, covering PhDs, Masters of Philosophy and Masters by Research plus Professional Higher Degrees by Research. A small collection of our older theses is also included, and is continually added to, due to our involvement in the British Library's eThoS service.

Recent Submissions

Savarens A & Hartmann J (2019) The Impacts of Climate Change and Human Rights: Some Early Reflections on the Carbon Majors Inquiry (Forthcoming). In: Lin J & Kysar D (eds.) Climate Change Litigation in the Asia Pacific. Cambridge. See

The quest for remedies to address harm associated with the impacts of climate change has recently seen a surge in complaints based on human rights arguments. The use of human rights law as a tool to redress harm caused by climate change depends upon whether a victim can substantiate a claim that a duty bearer has contributed to climate change, in such a way as to amount to a human rights violation. Qualifying the effects of climate change as human rights violations, however, poses technical o...

Update STORRE\_FILE Mapping

Use this utility if you get an error message that there is no STORRE Bitstream mapping for a given WT OutputFile when exporting a WT Output to STORRE. You should be able to locate the required bitstream in STORRE, determine its UUID, and then create a mapping for that OutputFile to the appropriate Bitstream UUID.

Note: This will unlink the WT Output from it's current STORRE record (leaving that record an "orphan" in STORRE) and will unlink the new STORRE record from the WT Output it was previously linked to (leaving that WT Output unconnected to any STORRE record). It will also delete all OutputFile to Bitstream mappings - this means that if the WT Output is exported again, as well as updating the metadata it will ADD the OutputFiles to the (newly linked) STORRE record (therefore you may want/need to remove any "old" files associated with that STORRE record).

NOTE: Worktribe Type Subtype values are drawn from the local Public Web database. As in mapped Worktribe Type Subtype values will only appear in the above drop down if there is at least 1 'Out' with that Type Subtype in the database.

STORRE Collection Types are drawn from STORRE Collection names. As such, a particular Collection Type will only appear in this list if there is at least one Collection of that Type in STORRE.
