

Research Explorer – Your Guide to the German Research Landscape

Central resource for institute IDs

- Each institute at German universities and non-university research institutions listed with its own unique ID
- Plus references to international ID systems

Subject area guide to German research institutes

- Each institute classified by subject area
- Classification based on a standard national system defined by the Federal Statistical Office (DESTATIS)

Accessibility

- Free of charge and available to all
- Full English version available for international use

www.research-explorer.de

In the Research Explorer, you'll find over 25,000 institutes at universities and non-university research institutions, along with the following information:

- Name and address
- Subject area classification
- Type of institution
- Hierarchical structure of institutes
- Links to institute website
- Doctoral programmes and doctoral regulations
- DFG-funded projects in the GEPRIS information system

Questions or comments?

Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft – Information Management
Holger Hahnen, Christian Fischer
E-mail: institutionen-extern@dfg.de